

cardiac disorders

Across

- | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. primary cause of CHF 3. BP > 140/90 5. a decrease in _____ causes a decrease in force of ventricular contraction 6. treatment for hypovolemia 8. a type of shock that has a high mortality rate | 12. a type of shock due to inadequate circulating blood flow 13. decreased blood flow & O₂ delivery to heart muscle 14. a cause of hypoventilation |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Down

- | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2. effect of secondary aging 4. mainly protein & reflects process of removing cholesterol from blood 7. one of the first clinical symptoms of shock | 9. an acid controlled by respiratory system 10. a benign clinical syndrome characterized by vasospasm of digits 11. at risk for atherosclerosis 15. normal _____ of arterial blood is 7.35-7.45 |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|